

ABA:68667748

OB anterior

A fluorescence microscopy image of a brain section. The image shows two large, roughly circular blue fluorescent regions, likely representing the optic chiasm or optic nerves. Below these larger regions, there are two smaller, more distinct blue spots. A white crosshair is overlaid on the image, with a vertical line passing through the center of the two large blue regions and a horizontal line passing through the center of the two smaller blue spots. The background is black.