

ABA : 68845472

VPM/VPL

An axial brain scan showing functional activation in blue. The image is divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal white line. The activation is most prominent in the upper central region, corresponding to the VPM/VPL area. There are also smaller activation spots in the lower left and right regions.