

ABA : 69028456

S0

An axial brain scan image with a blue highlighted region. The image is divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal white line. The blue region is located in the posterior part of the brain, specifically in the left posterior quadrant (top-left of the image). There is also a small blue spot in the right posterior quadrant (top-right of the image). The rest of the brain area is dark.