

ABA:70946134

A posterior

The image displays a brain scan, likely an fMRI or PET scan, showing a localized area of high activity (yellow and red) in the posterior region, with the rest of the brain showing low activity (blue). The image is overlaid with a white grid.