

ABA: 71249742

VPM/VPL

An axial brain scan showing a blue-colored region of activation in the posterior parietal cortex, specifically in the VPM/VPL area. The image is divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal white line. The activation is most prominent in the lower-left and lower-right quadrants, with a smaller focus in the lower-middle quadrant. The rest of the brain scan is dark, indicating no significant activation.