

ABA:74277665

DM

The image displays two axial brain slices side-by-side. The left slice shows several distinct, bright blue spots of functional activity, primarily in the lower-left and central regions. The right slice is significantly darker, indicating minimal activity. A white crosshair is centered over the two slices, with a vertical line separating them and a horizontal line bisecting both.