

ABA:74819346

OB anterior

A fluorescence microscopy image showing a brain section. The image is divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal white line. In the center, there is a bright blue fluorescent signal that appears to be localized in the OB anterior region. The signal is somewhat diffuse but has a distinct central peak. The background is dark, indicating low autofluorescence or background noise.