

ABA: 75147759

VPM/VPL

An axial brain scan showing a blue-colored region of activation in the posterior parietal cortex, specifically in the VPM/VPL area. The image is divided into four quadrants by a white crosshair. The activation is most prominent in the lower-left and lower-right quadrants, with some signal in the upper quadrants as well. The background is black, and the brain tissue is shown in shades of blue.