

ABA: 75651161

SC

An axial brain scan showing two blue highlighted regions. The image is divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal white line. The blue regions are located in the upper-left and lower-left quadrants, representing the left hemisphere of the brain. The rest of the brain scan is black.